RJC Dance one week Summer Dance Camp to start next week

Leeds, West Yorkshire: RJC Dance will be offering young boys and girls aged between 8 years and 11 years an authentic dance experience for a whole week.

The Dance Camp runs from Monday 31 July - Friday 4 August 2017,
10:30am - 2:30pm daily at Moortown Baptist Church Hall, delivering contemporary, carnival/soca, reggae and urban dance styles for the young people.

This FREE school holiday activity Camp is offered to young people who are new to the organisation and focuses on how dance can unlock potential, creativity and style, rather than limiting their dance experience to the perfection of technique.

Parents, guardians, carers and friends are invited to the dance camp 'SHARING' 2017 1:45pm - 2:30pm on Friday 4th August, 2017 to watch a demonstration of the culmination of work undertaken throughout the week.

About RJC Dance:

Founded in 1993, RJC Dance RJC Dance is a leading voluntary dance organisation in the North with youth development and education at the heart of our work. Based at the Mandela Centre, Leeds, we represent the diversity of our community and our nation. RJC Dance is gifted in engaging young people from all backgrounds. Over 200 boys and girls aged 4 years - 19 years attend weekly dance sessions. In addition we offer performance opportunities and residential as part of personal development for participants which can lead to accredited pieces of work via Arts Award and Sports Leaders awards.
