LEEDS WEST INDIAN CARNIVAL

Leeds West Indian Carnival

The Leeds Carnival, also called the Leeds West Indian Carnival or the Chapeltown Carnival, is one of the longest running West Indian carnivals in Europe, having been going since 1967. The carnival is held in the Chapeltown and Harehills parts of Leeds every August bank holiday weekend. Attendance is estimated at about 150,000.

LEEDS CARNIVAL FACTS AND FIGURES

Each year, Leeds West Indian Carnival involves:

50,000 feathers	80,000 portions of rice and peas
300 litres of glue	20,000 patties
2000 dancers	20,000 portions of ackee and saltfish
5000 metres of costume material	100,000 fried dumplings
3,500 man-hours of costume making	50,000 portions of chips
70,000 pieces of jerk chicken

SAFETY

- Meet up with friends before you arrive at the Carnival
- Don't arrange to meet at busy junctions - these will get very congested
- Have a set meeting place in case you get lost or separated
- Don't rely on mobile phones as reception may be affected by the large crowds
- Be on the alert for pickpockets
- and for any unattended bags or suspect packages
- Don't wear expensive jewellery or carry too much cash. Criminals are attracted to large crowds
- Drink lots of water, it's a long day and it can get hot out there!
- Wear flat shoes and comfortable clothing. Ladies, leave your heels at home!

Have a happy peaceful carnival,
lots of fun, joy and laughter

Carnival Parade Route

The Leeds Carnival Parade leaves Potternewton Park at 2pm; turns left down Harehills Avenue, right onto Harehills Lane and right again down Roundhay Road; right onto Barrack Road, right again onto Chapeltown Road before turning right onto Harehills Avenue and back into Potternewton Park.

Whether you stay in the park or join the procession there's always something to see but here are a few of our favourite spots for the best view of the excitement and costumes on show:

- Parade Start and Finish in Potternewton
- The hill overlooking the main stage and costume arena.
- Parade Start – Junction of Harehills Lane and Roundhay Road.
- Along the Route – Roundhay Road and Chapeltown Road.
- Parade Return to Potternewton Park – Junction of Chapeltown Road and Harehills Avenue; Harehills Avenue.

J'ouvert morning BANK HOLIDAY Monday 27th August leaves Leeds Westindian Centre at 6.am

The carnival procession leaves potternewton park 2pm prompt - BANK HOLIDAY Monday.

FOUNDER OF LEEDS WESTINDIAN CARNIVAL

Nevisian-born Dr. Arthur France MBE, his wife and grandchildren are seen here during their visit with Hon. Mark Brantley, Premier of Nevis.

CHARLESTOWN, Nevis — Hon. Mark Brantley, Premier of Nevis, welcomed Nevisian born Dr. Arthur France MBE to Nevis at his Pinney's Estate Office when the celebrated son-of-the-soil, who resides in Leeds, England, paid him a courtesy visit on July 25.

"I just want to extend very warm greetings to Arthur France MBE, who is quite famous not only in England but here as well," Brantley said. "He is the man credited for founding the Leeds Carnival." "We welcome you home, this is not welcome to Nevis, this is welcome home," the Premier said. "We are delighted to have you here with us," he said after locking Dr. France in a warm and friendly embrace.

Dr. France, who is in Nevis with his wife and grandchildren at the invitation of the Nevis Island Administration, will officiate during the opening festivities for the 44th Culturama at the Cultural Village on Thursday, July 26. The festivities, with the theme "Fete, Food & Folklore, Culturama 44!" conclude on Aug. 7. under the patronage of Mr. Cleffrin "Shine" Daniel of Fountain Village.

In response to the Premier Brantley's welcome, Dr. France said he was honoured to be back home.

"For me it's a pleasure and an honour to be here because Nevis is the island that shaped my destiny," Dr. France said.

"I was born in Nevis. I had a great mother and father and I think the education system in Nevis is second to none and that's what made me the person I am," Dr. France explained. "The teachers, and in our culture the community brings up the child; not just the parents and this is what the world is losing out on."

In 2017, Dr. France was honoured by the NIA during the 50th anniversary of the Leeds West Indian Carnival. A team comprising of a cross section of cultural performers accompanied by then Premier of Nevis, presented Mr. France with a plaque in recognition of his contribution to Nevis culture.

The celebrated Nevisian was born in Mount Lily but migrated to England in 1957. He recalled that as a child at the age of five he was walking the village road holding on to his mother's dress when he listened to the Big Drum coming up the road and never got it out of his head.

He said he always wanted to play, but his parents wouldn't let him. It was not until he migrated he was able to fulfil that dream and after many hurdles and determination what began as a small cultural event with others from the Caribbean, evolved into the famous West Indian Carnival in Leeds. The event has, over time, become the most prevalent carnival in Europe.

MY CARNIVAL STORY

By Danny Friar

When my mother's family first came to Leeds in 1965, my mother was still a toddler and had never seen a black person before. It was quite a shock for a little white girl to see a person with different coloured skin for the first time. She ran into the house to alert her mother. Since then, my family have become very diverse. I have two uncles from St. Kitts, one of whom was in the Caribbeans Steel Band, and one 'uncle' (actually my cousin's husband) from Jamaica. These three men are just a small part of the 'Caribbean side' of our family, so Caribbean culture has never seemed 'exotic' to me, it was just another part of life.

I've never known life without Leeds West Indian Carnival. I was born in Leeds in 1986 and I attended my first Carnival later that year but I like to tell people I've been attending Leeds West Indian Carnival since before I was born. My parents have been going to carnival together since 1983 and my mother even went to a couple before that. She was pregnant with me in August 1985 but went to carnival regardless. She hasn't missed a single carnival since 1981. She was there for the 21st anniversary, the 25th anniversary, the 30th, 40th and 50th anniversaries. She lived in Harehills in the 1970s and grew up jammin' to the sweet sounds of Reggae being played by sound systems like Majestic and dancing the night away in the Blues clubs held in people's basements in the early 80s.

My father came to Leeds in 1983 and attended his first carnival with my mother that year. He would help pull the floats along from Potternewton Park, around the entire route and then back to the park. Back in those days our family's spot was on the corner of Shepherds Lane and Roundhay Road. My grandmother lived on Bankside Street, just one street away. In the 1990s and early 2000s our 'spot' changed to outside the Fforde Grene pub at the other end of Roundhay Road. Most of my carnival memories come from this period. I grew up with Soca in my blood. I remember hearing 'Follow The Leader', 'Doggie' and 'Jump And Wave' for the first time while dancing down Roundhay Road. I remember the first time my mum let me and my sister follow Godfather's truck the entire route. I also remember how much my feet hurt by the time we reached Chapeltown Road. I remember my older cousins attending the first J'Ouvert Morning and I remember when my sister, dressed as a pirate, was a member of one of the troupes. That was also the first year I took my own photos of Leeds West Indian Carnival. I remember hearing Reggae coming from cars parked in the Fforde Grene car park, I remember sitting on the grass and eating curry goat and dumplings in the park and I remember how the bass from the sound systems thumped you in the chest as the green tractors pulled the floats down the road. I blew my whistle until I was red in the face and when we got home it would return to the kitchen drawer until next year. We would always rush home, dumplings in a brown paper bag, to catch the carnival on Calendar News.

I've been attending Leeds West Indian Carnival for 31 years now. It is an annual event that I always look forward to and is up there with birthdays and Christmas. 2017 was always going to be a big year for Leeds West Indian Carnival, the 50th Anniversary. In the spring I was part of the Carnival Chronicles team, researching carnival history and collecting oral histories. This work was used in a special exhibition at the Tetley in Leeds and was interwoven into the play 'Carnival Chronicles' written by Zodwa Nyoni. During the year, one phrase that kept cropping up was 'half the story has never been told'. In September I set up a blog, Leeds Mas Media, as an attempt to tell the full story, a story I have known and loved all my life, a story I have lived. Leeds West Indian Carnival is about much more than just a weekend every August. It is about the Steel Pan Bands, the Calypso and Soca stars, the dancers and the costume makers. My story is just a part of a much larger story that spans 50 years. I'm now looking for people to share their carnival stories with me, to add to the bigger picture.

ALL New Chapeltown Community Djembe Drum Circle.

Funded by the Leeds Community Foundation after MD Nattylyn Jeffers was successful in receiving a grant of £500 to develop the community-led project inspired by the diverse changing cultural heritage of Chapeltown and its residents, the drum circle creates an opportunity for the community to get together thus reducing social isolation and promoting cultural dialogue through music and the arts.

Members of the community come together at least once a week to participate in workshops led by an international djembe enthusiast Diego from Mexico and guest teachers will be invited weekly to share their stories. Positive partnerships will occur at The Ukrainian Centre and currently we host workshops at 49 Nassau Place, Chapeltown, LS7... (otherwise known as The Lodge), owners are Kalabash Restaurant on Chapeltown Road.

ALL NEW DJEMBE DRUM CIRCLE THURSDAYS!

- 6.15pm til 7.15pm Beginners workshop &
 - 7.30pm til 8.45pm Advanced/ Intermediate Workshop led by facilitator Diego from Mexico!
- £4/3 Concessions, (all classes free to Asylum Seekers, Refugees) Classes are affordable for the community to attend.

RECOGNISING THE SIGNS OF STROKE

It's vital to know how to spot the warning signs of a stroke in yourself or someone else. Using the FAST test is the best way to do this.

Face: Can the person smile? Has their face fallen on one side?

Arms: Can the person raise both arms and keep them there

Speech problems: Can the person speak clearly and understand what you say? Is their speech slurred?

Time: If you see any of these three signs, it's time to call 999.

A stroke is a medical emergency. Always dial 999.

For information and advice about stroke call the Stroke Association's free helpline on 0303 3033 100.

The Leylands Riots of June 1917

Speaker Dr David Beeston
Wednesday, 19th September, at 7pm.
Northern School of Contemporary Dance
98 Chapeltown Road, Leeds LS7 4BH.

On 3rd and 4th June 1917, Leeds experienced some of the worst rioting in its history, when thousands of its inhabitants stormed into the Leylands district of the city, vandalising the homes, communal buildings and business premises of the city's large Jewish community. This lecture will commence with an examination of both the long-term trends and the immediate causes of this outrage. The major events will then be thoroughly analysed and, finally, the roles of the police, the judiciary, the local press and the national government will all be critically assessed. You've passed this Church on Chapeltown road a hundred of times. Make a point of coming in during the Leeds Heritage weekend on:

Saturday, 8th. September between 10.00 am and 4.00 pm

You'll have a warm welcome along with a cuppa and the opportunity to enjoy the rich colours of our stained glass windows, the beauty of the paintings and the fine murals. Yes the rumours are true. Heaven does have multi-cultural angels.

There will also be a special exhibition, marking the end of World War I and the sacrifices of both men and women. We haven't forgotten there is another centenary this year.

There will be other displays featuring the Chapeltown tradition of service and ways in which it is being kept alive today.

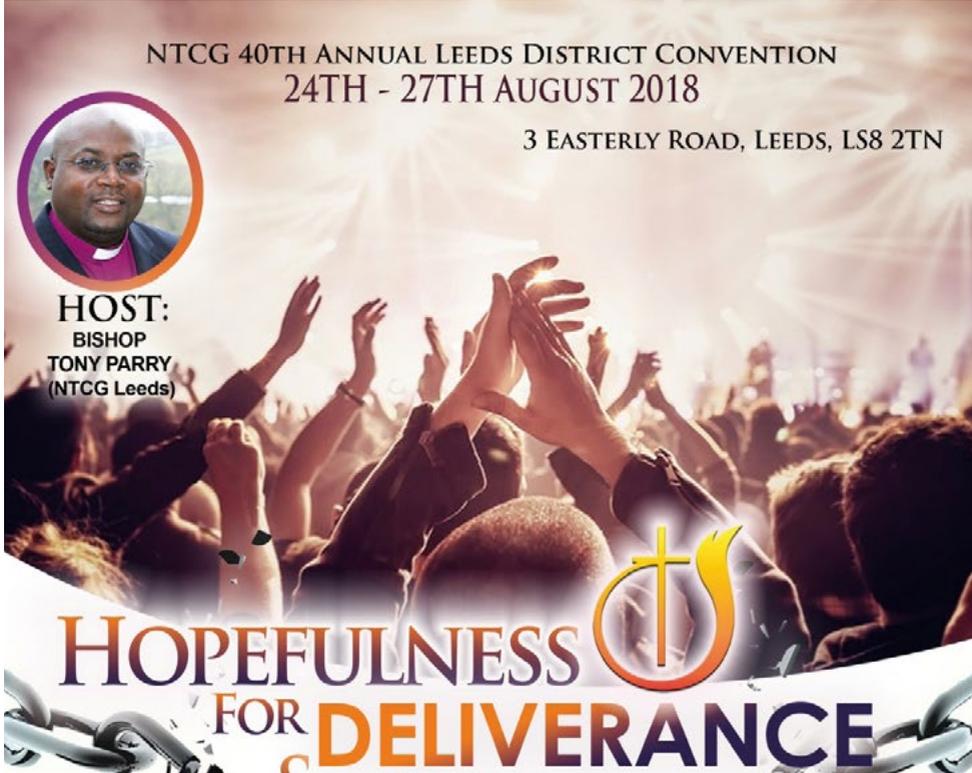

A treasure hunt for the younger children will keep them occupied while you stroll round.

Look out for our exhibition of carnival costumes starting October 13th.
